Phineas Wolcott Cook FAMILY ORGANIZATION NEWSLETTER

VOLUME 15

APRIL 1981

A Message from your President

Dear Family Members:

We are very excited about the progress of the Phineas Wolcott Cook Family Organization. Many special things are happening. We are living in an era when family histories, diaries and important events in the lives of our ancestors have a direct impact upon our lives.

TWO NEW COMMITTEES

The board of directors in their quarterly meeting held June 14, 1980 gave directions that two new committees were to be established. The members of these committees were chosen and approved at the next board meeting held September 13, 1980. These committees and their purposes are as follows:

Museum Committee:

Chairperson: LaWanna D. Osborne 801-376-5291
602 So. Sunset Drive
Kaysville, Utah 84037

LaWanna has a special love for old family pictures and artifacts and will determine where they should be displayed. There are a number of locations (DUP Museum, State Historical Society, Church Archives, etc.) where early pioneers are recognized and honored. It is our desire to pay tribute to these great people. Should you have any old pictures of P. W. Cook and/or his wives, we would appreciate knowing of their whereabouts and condition so that a copy or the original can be made available to display in the appropriate location.

History of P. W. Cook On Slides and Tapes Committee:

Chairperson: Alton D. Cook 801-723-2369
#5 North 700 East
Brigham City, Utah 84302

Script: Shirley P. Sealey 801-756-2756
Box 108-2
American Fork, Utah 84003

Music: Kenneth Cook 801-825-2735
222 South 3000 West
Syracuse, Utah 84015

Interviews: Wanda Hulet 801-277-7138
1861 Osage Orange Ave.
Salt Lake City, Utah 84117

Photographer: Keith Cook 801-377-4904
281 North 1200 West
Provo, Utah 84601

Each of these persons is very qualified in his area of responsibility. Alton spent several years while in the Air Force putting together presentations on slides and tapes. He is also a past President of the family organization and has a great love for the family. Shirley is a very talented and accomplished author and the Family Historian. Kenneth is a music teacher who has been responsible for several musicals in the Davis County area. Wanda has interviewed many of our older family members in her responsibility as Chairperson of the Book of Anecdotes Committee. Keith has a hobby of photography. He is from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania and at present is attending BYU.

This will be a very exciting experience for this committee to research the life of Phineas Wolcott Cook and prepare a historical presentation on slides and tape. The basis for this history will be the P.W. Cook diary. If anyone has additional factual stories or information not contained in the diary which is now being distributed, we would appreciate your sending it to Alton Cook. We are in hopes that this can be ready in 12 to 15 months for the family members to enjoy. We will keep you posted on the progress of this project.

SHORT RANGE GOALS

We have a great amount of work planned for the next few years, outlined as follows:

1. To have all grandparent level families organized and holding family reunions by August 1982.
2. To accomplish research on family lines not presently being worked, and to coordinate this research so that those desiring to do research can be trained and the work coordinated to avoid duplication of effort. Complete coordination by December 1981.
3. Distribute the P. W. Cook Diary reprint to all family members by December 1981. (Diary was printed in December 1980)
4. Complete a History of P. W. Cook on slides and tapes by May 1982.
5. Prepare and distribute a descending pedigree chart including approximately 4,000 descendants of P. W. Cook and his four wives by August 1982.
6. Complete the collection of information for a Book of Anecdotes about family members by December 1984, have it printed in time for Christmas giving in 1985.
7. Put pictures and artifacts of ancestors in the appropriate museums and other locations where proper recognition can be given.
8. Present many biographical sketches of older family members in the family newsletters.

APPRECIATION

I hope the family members can appreciate the dedicated work of the officers and directors of the P. W. Cook Family Organization. They are spending a lot of time fulfilling their own assigned responsibilities and in many cases have taken additional assignments for the benefit of the family. The Members of the Board of Directors have taken the direct responsibility of coordinating the gathering of information for the Descending Pedigree Chart. Newel McMillan has also been Chairman of the P. W. Cook Diary Reprint Committee while serving as President and Vice President. Alton Cook has had the addressograph and work of the Post Office Committee in his basement for several years while serving as President and Executive Secretary, and now he will chair the P. W. Cook History on Slides and Tapes Committee. Wanda Hulet and Shirley Sealey, as well as many others, are also assisting across committee lines.

To say thank you is but a small expression of the gratitude we feel for their dedication and the love for this great family expressed by their labors. Certainly we are proud of our ancestry and recognize that the posterity of P. W. Cook and his wives is a credit to their names. We as officers, directors and committee members wish to thank you, the membership of the P. W. Cook Family Organization for the privilege of serving you and getting to know and love you more.

Sincerely,

LaMar A. Day

LaMar A. Day, President

TWO NEW DIRECTORS

We're happy to announce the appointment of two members to the Board of Directors from the Poulson Family, Johanna "Josinette" Whiting and her son Gordon Whiting. We encourage the members of the Poulson Family to communicate their needs and desires to them. We wish them well in this opportunity to serve this great family.

PEDIGREE CHART

COORDINATED RESEARCH

It is our desire to coordinate the genealogical research being done on Cook family ancestry in an effort to avoid duplication of work which results in much valuable time being wasted. We feel that this can create more interest in doing research as well as accomplishing the work at a much more rapid pace.

The genealogical research, as far as our organized committee work, has been dormant for the past while. We would like to change that, now that the four generation submission work should be completed and submitted or resubmitted, as the case may be, by the summer of 1981. This is the most important responsibility we all have. As these Submissions are completed, ample information will be stored on generations from the present back to Phineas Wolcott Cook and perhaps slightly beyond in some cases.

The pedigree chart showing Phineas Wolcott Cook as number one is reprinted here showing the research that has been completed. We are assigning members of the Genealogical Research Committee as coordinators for segments of research as follows:

Position #4: The "Daniel Cook" Line
 Claudia Phippen King (801) 756-6534
 70 Country Club Drive
 Highland, Utah 84003

Position #5: The "Elizabeth Porter" Line
 Pearl Cook Day (801) 359-2836
 523 East 700 South
 Salt Lake City, Utah 84102

Position #3: The "Irene Churchill" Line
 Clella Cook Glazier (801) 467-3434
 1843 E. Clayborne Ave.
 Salt Lake City, Utah 84106

To be successful we need a team effort and we need you on the team. If you have any information beyond that printed on the pedigree chart, please submit it to the coordinator who will pass it on to any others researching that line. You in turn will receive information obtained from other researchers.

We feel there can be some major break throughs if we pool the collective efforts of our organization. Your help is appreciated in this research and data gathering work.

Thanks,

Bruce J. Cook
 Bruce J. Cook
 Vice President

ELLA CALL COOK

on Sept. 10, 1902 in the Logan LDS Temple and they homesteaded a farm in Etna. Later they moved to Kemmerer in 1913 and then back to Afton in 1918. The couple relocated in Salt Lake City in 1959 to work in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Carl's death came on Dec. 24, 1970.

As a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Ella served as an organist, a Sunday School Teacher, Primary President, as well as positions in the MIA and Relief Society in the ward and in the stake. She was also an active member of the American Legion Auxiliary and the American Red Cross Organization.

Survivors include a son, Dr. John C. Cook of Dallas, Texas, daughters, Mrs. L. M. (Leora) Barrus, Mrs. Roy (Ciella) Glazier, Mrs. Frank (Josinette) Whiting all of Salt Lake City and Mrs. Harold C. (Freda) Gease of San Jacinto, California.

She is also survived by brothers, Farnham L. Call of Afton; Chester A. Call, Ogden; sister Mrs. Eric (Lorna B.) Schlote, Ogden; 27 grandchildren, 121 great-grandchildren and 48 great-great-grandchildren.

Ella Cook was a gifted woman. Her formal education was brief because she spent her young years where little was offered, but she never ceased learning. She availed herself of the opportunity to study such things as oil painting, china painting and various other crafts and her natural talent, with this training, resulted in art works of exceptional quality.

She was a professional dressmaker and very clever at recycling any material for complete usefulness. Nothing was ever wasted in her home. She encouraged her family to learn and rejoiced in their accomplishments. She taught her children to play the piano and got them started in many other fields.

She loved the gospel of Jesus Christ, and delighted in hearing it read to her when her eyesight finally failed. She had a gift for teaching children. Her great faith taught her family the truths about our mission here on earth and gave them a foundation for activity.

Her life might be summarized by the 13th Article of Faith: "We believe in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous, and in doing good to all men; indeed, we may say that we follow the admonition of Paul, We believe all things, we hope all things, we have endured many things and hope to be able to endure all things. If there is anything virtuous, lovely, or of good report or praiseworthy, we seek after these things."

Leora Barrus, daughter

ARTICLES NEEDED

If you have a Cook Family ancestor (or their spouse) on whom we have not published an article, please prepare one and send it to us. We would like to use one or more in every newsletter. We will use as many as space will allow in each newsletter.

Write the article so that it can be enjoyed by all who read it whether they are personally acquainted with that individual or not. We want to become acquainted with them through your article.

COMPUTER NEEDED

We have tried several methods over the years to handle our mailing lists and to keep necessary information on family members. We are finding that none of these methods are adequate considering the rapid growth of the family and the mobility of our present society.

We are requesting the assistance of a family member who has a computer with address label printing capabilities. Please contact:

CHANGES OF ADDRESS

One of the biggest expenses we incur is postage. We can mail out a newsletter for approximately 4¢. However, if that newsletter is returned because a person has moved, it will cost us from 30¢ to 50¢ to further process it and find the new address. It also requires a considerable amount of time and expertise of committee members. Sometimes we are not successful and we lose that family from our mailing list. Our present list is about one-half what it should be because we have not received changes of address and addresses of new families.

PLEASE, PLEASE send us the changes of address and addresses of new families to:

? ? ? MICHEL L. CALL ? ? ?

Many family members have received letters from Michel L. Call offering to provide pedigree charts and family group sheets on specific families at a rather substantial price.

About three years ago the Family Organization purchased a set to determine their value. It was concluded that the information he furnished was not documented and was merely photocopies of sheets previously submitted to the LDS Genealogical Library by the Family Organization and other family members. Many of the sheets he furnished had mistakes which he had not attempted to verify or correct. The information was of no additional value to the Family Organization and probably of little help to individual family members.

If you are doing research along these lines, please coordinate your work with the Research Committee and your time and money will be much more beneficently spent.

FINANCES

As most of you are aware, for some time we have asked each family of this great organization for an annual contribution of $10.00 (tax deductible). We need your assistance in this regard now possibly more than at any other time in our history. We have undertaken several rather ambitious and extensive projects which have placed considerable demands on our resources.

Recently we printed the P. W. Cook Diary and History. We had presold 135 of these at $5.00 each, the balance of $5,325.00 had to be borrowed from family members who so graciously came to our aid. Some even borrowed money and then loaned it to us interest free. Therefore we are under pressure to sell the books and repay these loans.

We also try to publish two newsletters per year and are desirous of expanding our mailing list to include all family members.

It is our desire to greatly expand the genealogical research and to coordinate all the research being done by the family to more efficiently accomplish this work. All of this requires money.

Please send your dues, along with the "clip-off" information form to the organization address:

BIOGRAPHY OF ANN ELIZA HOWLAND COOK

Ann Eliza descended from a long line of Howlands that date back to Henry Howland, who was a cousin of John Howland, Captain of the Mayflower. She was the fourth child of Phebe Baker and Henry Howland and was born June 18, 1823, at Saratoga Springs, Saratoga County, New York. Her brothers and sisters were: Lorenzo Wright, born July 17, 1817; Erwin Baker born August 1, 1818; Eliza Cordelia, born 1821; Ann Maria, a twin sister of Ann Eliza; Susan Aurelia, born November 1826; and Charlotte Madilia, born April 1837. Her father was born October 22, 1789, the son of Knowlton Howland and Sarah Wright; and her mother was born April 5, 1791, the daughter of Jane Oley and Robert Baker. Erwin never came West, but stayed to run his copper business in New York.

From the pages of Ann Eliza's journal, signed by her in 1895, she states she was married January 1, 1840 at her father's home at Ross, Kalamazoo, Michigan to Phineas Wolcott Cook, by Rev. Calvin Clark, who was a minister of the Gospel Congregational Church. They made their first home with Phineas Cook's parents at Richland, Kalamazoo, Michigan, for a period of six years. During this time their first three children were born. Charlotte Orelia, January 1841 at Richland; Daniel Webster, October 5, 1852 at Ross; and Harriet Betsy on October 28, 1844 at Richland. This same year her second child died and was buried at or near the Howland Mill in Henry Sherman's field.

Ann Eliza heard the gospel from Elders Crandle Dunn and Edward M. Webb. After about two years of study and investigation, she and Phineas were baptized September 8, 1845 in the Kalamazoo River by Elder Edward Webb and were confirmed by Elders Crandle Dunn and Edward Webb. Great joy filled her heart. She knew she had found the true gospel, though her husband's people tried in every way to discourage her. Finally, after much abuse, Phineas, Ann Eliza and their two girls bid their families farewell and started their long trip to join the Latter Day Saints at Winter Quarters. It was May 4, 1846.

Her spirits were heavy, she was starting for a country that she knew not of. It was a land of strangers. Their wagon was strong and well built for the trip. They had a goodly supply of flour, corn and some cash.

The first day they traveled 9 or 10 miles and "put up" at Brother Tyrils. Ann Eliza and the girls slept in the house and Phineas stayed in the wagon. It rained all night. The second night they camped near Pigeon Prairie. They caught up to a family by the name of Mahon (who traveled with them to Iowa Territory until they reached the Des Moines River.) By the time they arrived at Walnut Grove in Illinois, they met up with Levi Savage, his wife and three sons; Levi Jr., Mathew, Moroni, and one daughter, Hannah. They also met the family of Benjamin Waldren, his wife and two sons. They all camped at Walnut Grove for six days to feed the oxen, wash and clean their clothes, and to write letters home. It rained continually night and day, but Eliza and Phineas went on their way rejoicing, although the rains made the roads very muddy. Some times they traveled miles in mud that was hub deep. They had much trouble crossing the Fox River, the water was high and the current swift. All of the oxen had to be hitched to one wagon to keep it from being washed down stream. All together the teams reached nearly across the stream. The heavier teams were hitched on lead. The Des Moines River was about 50 rods wide and the water ran rapid. They had to lift the wagon boxes about six inches to keep the water from coming into the wagons.

Two days after they crossed the Des Moines River, they came to the Mormon Road from Nauvoo to Winter Quarters. It was about nine o'clock at night when they got to a camping place. Here they found many other saints. Among them was Edward M. Webb, the man who had converted and baptized them. They all went on to the Bluffs and crossed the Missouri River, all except Father Pate, who slept at Pisgah. They camped in company with Seth Taft, Chancy Webb and Marace Sudaher. It was Oct. 1, 1846. Eliza's husband "was for going on" to fix a cabin as Ann Eliza was soon to be confined, but Edward M. Webb urged them not to leave their company. He offered them his tent that would be more comfortable than any cabin that could be built in such a short time; thus little Eliza was born October 9, 1846, six miles south of the main camp of Winter Quarters.

Ann Eliza was taken sick in the night and it was with difficulty that Phineas could get anyone to go for assistance, but after looking about the camp for someone to go he found a man by the name of Dykes who had traveled with them from Mechanicsville. He took Brother Taft's horse and started about 9:00 in the evening and returned 3:00 in the morning. Dykes had to get off his horse and carry the midwife on his back through the sloughs and mud holes because she was afraid to ride on the horse. Ann Eliza was very sick. She was delivered safely of a daughter in about an hour after Mother Sessions, the midwife, arrived.

The Indians were very hostile in their feelings. They wanted us to give them all we had and because we would not, they set our hay on fire several times. They tried to burn our wagons and all we had, but we succeeded in putting the fire out. They shot an arrow into one of Brother Taft's cows which almost killed her so he butchered her to save the meat. He divided this beef among the families. He gave about 30 pounds to Phineas and it was first-rate.

On Sunday Phineas went up to the camp to a meeting in company with Dykes. This was the first time Phineas had seen any of the twelve except Parley P. Pratt, who had come to their camp in Iowa on his way to England. There were but two or three of the twelve present at the meeting.

When the men returned from the meeting they found the women much frightened by the Indians who were very angry because Sister Taft would not give them a hind quarter of beef. She offered to give them about 15 or 20 pounds apiece, but they said it was their cow for they had examined the hide and found where they had shot the arrow and by that they claimed it. They pointed to the hay and said this is our land, we will burn all of it and then your cattle will die. But they finally took the amount of meat offered them and appeared satisfied. After they were through cutting hay, they moved to the main camp.

They had hired a girl by the name of Dolly Childs. Eliza was about 11 days old and Ann Eliza was not very strong, but the want of means compelled them to let Dolly go.

At first Phineas and Edward M. Webb went to see Brigham Young to know where they should camp (this was the first sight that Phineas had of the leader of the Kingdom of God on the earth) and he told us to camp along on the outside line wherever we could find a place. We went into the southwest corner of the side hill. In a few days, Phineas went to work for President Young and we moved over onto the north side of the hill where the mill was being built. Here my husband dug out a flat place in the side hill to set our wagon box in while he took the running gears to draw logs for a house here. Phineas labored hard to build a house. He got most of the logs hauled onto the spot and part of it layed up. It was 14 feet square. Dykes, the man who was helping Phineas, did not like the place and he concluded to give Phineas his part of the logs and make him a cave in the ground, which he did. As soon as Dykes left, Father Pate came and helped us finish the house and lived with us until spring. After we got the body of the house up, we cut out the door. While he was hewing a casing for the door, Phineas stuck the corner of the ax into the instep of his foot which laid him up about 3 weeks.

In less than three months after Phineas and Ann Eliza and their three children had reached the camp, seven hundred log houses and eighty-three sod homes had been built. There was a population of 3,483 souls. By spring the homes numbered one thousand.

The temperature was recorded as dropping to 16° below zero at Winter Quarters. During the winter an epidemic of scurvy broke out among the exiles, which was caused because of a lack of vegetables in their diet. The death rate was high due also to the weakened conditions of their systems brought about by the long continued endurance of hardships and lack of food. Ann Eliza's baby that was nearly eight months old was among the dead, and was buried in the Winter Quarters burial grounds on the west side of the river. Ann Eliza sorrowed, but was mellowed by her sad experiences. She never lost the faith in God and always acknowledged the hand of the Lord in all things.

They left Winter Quarters May 19, 1848. Ann Eliza drove her own team and wagon across the plains from Winter Quarters to the West. She had Harriet Betsy, four years old and baby Augusta Precenda with her. Her husband drove a wagon loaded with luggage for Brigham Young as far as Green River, then he drove Sr. Augusta Cobb's wagon (a wife of Joseph Smith) the rest of the way to the valley. Phineas Wolcott Cook wrote in his journal, "Ann Eliza had a hard time with her little ones for the mules were quite fractious in bad places, but her wagon was in good shape and lightly loaded." Alen Tailer was Captain of their hundred, John Harvey of their fifties, and Alva Hanks of their ten.

They arrived in the valley of Great Salt Lake safe and sound in September or October of 1848 and made their first home at Canyon Creek. On January 28, 1850, Phineas Howland was born and in 1852, Phebe Irene was born. In the spring of 1851, they moved to Manti where the Cooks had been called. They constructed a mill and then moved back to Salt Lake City in 1854. While in Salt Lake there were three more children born - Valcum in 1854, Alonzo Howland and Anne Eliza (twins) were born in the Lion House in 1855. In 1856, they moved to Payson, then to Goshen where they lived until 1863. While there, Mary, Henry H., Martha and William were born. Her husband founded Goshen, a town about 10 miles from Payson and was the first Bishop there from 1857-1860. While at Goshen, Phineas and Ann Eliza made a trip to Stockton, California to visit Ann Eliza's parents in 1862 to receive Eliza's legacy from Great Grandfather Howland; it was $2,000 in gold. They had a nice visit and were offered money and 1,000 acres of land plus free transportation for their children who were in Goshen if they would forsake the church and stay in California, but nothing could cause them to give up the Gospel of Jesus Christ. When they could not be induced to accept the wonderful offer, Father Howland procured the best mule team that could be purchased and a new wagon. He then loaded the wagon with everything in "a dry good way" that a family could use and gave it to them. They returned to Goshen. During the winter, not too long after their return from California, they had a terrible fire and lost nearly everything they had. The children had to herd 700 sheep on the desert because their hay had been burned. Through it all, Ann Eliza acknowledged the hand of the Lord in this great loss.

At October Conference in 1863, the Phineas Cook family was called by President Brigham Young (along with many others) to go and help settle the Bear Lake Valley. Phineas Cook went with a group of the brethren on horseback to blaze the trail, then returned to get his family. The Cooks, William Teeple and family, David Savage and family and others whose names I do not know were the last company that entered the valley that year. (I do know that there were fourteen ox teams in the group.) The snow was nearly three feet deep before they reached the place we now call Paris, Idaho.

The family lived in a two room home (that Phineas built) until the next spring. Then he established a summer camp at what is now known as Fish Haven; then on to Swan Creek where they established a ranch. They put up hay for their cattle and spent the winter at Meadowville; then returned and built a gristmill and sawmill at Swan Creek just north of the creek and west of what is now Lakota.

The next ten years they fought against the three great enemies of the Bear Lake Valley - frost, grasshoppers and Indians. There were no wars or killings, but the saints had to feed the Indians much of the food they themselves needed.

Ann Eliza always had strangers at her table - people who came to have Phineas grind their grain and would get snowed in; Indians, sometimes as many as 18 at a time; or some poor soul who needed a place to stay.

In 1879, Ann Eliza was called to be President of the first Relief Society organized in Garden City, Rich County, Utah. She held this position for 25 years. The last Relief Society was held in her home just a few days before her death because she was not able to go to the church. In this meeting she arose to her feet and bore a "powerful testimony" to the truth of the gospel. She said that through all her suffering, hardships and sacrifices for the gospel, she had never wanted to go back. She encouraged the sisters to continue in the great work of building up God's Kingdom.

Ann Eliza Howland Cook lived alone in Garden City from 1879 until her death. She was cared for by her youngest child, Hyrum and his wife, Annie.

She was kind, well educated, spoke perfect English and taught her children and grandchildren correct speech. She was a good nurse and endured patiently all sacrifice. She was a careful recorder and could outspell most people. She shared her husband with three other women; Amanda Savage, Nancy Catherine McCleve and Johanna Poulson.

Ann Eliza was the mother of 16 children, five of them preceeded her in death. She died May 18, 1896 at her home in Garden City, Utah, at the age of 73. She was buried in the cemetery there.

NEW NEWSLETTER FORMAT

When you receive the newsletter in the mail, it will have page 5 on the outside. Open it up to the center which will have page 8 on the left and page 1 on the right. Just fold these pages to the outside.

The newsletter has been designed to accomplish the following purposes:

1. Provide maximum printing space at a minimum of expense.
2. Designed to read like a book with the letterhead page as page one.
3. Holes are punched in the top of the last page so that it can be bound in a Book of Remembrance or an end fastening legal folder. If it is to be bound then the first six pages should be trimmed so that the pages will turn freely. Trim one inch off the top of pages 1, 2, 3, and 4, and cut off the Address/Order Form from pages 5 and 6.
4. The last page (page 8) is printed upside down so that when bound in a folder or Book of Remembrance, it can be read without turning the book around.

We hope this will make it easier to keep this information. We are trying to improve the quality of our newsletter and welcome any suggestions you can offer.

The Life and History of Phineas Wolcott Cook

Second Edition

The second edition is not just a reprint of the first edition which contained the autobiography of approximately half of his life and his picture. This new edition adds:

Another picture of Phineas.

The best picture available of each of his four wives.

Samples of his handwriting and signature.

An overview of his life.

A review of the last half of his life which adds much new information about:

The Goshen Period

The Bear Lake Period

The Logan Period

The Star Valley Period

A full 188 pages about this pioneer, convert, master carpenter, farmer, miller and cattle rancher.

It is an exciting volume to read. P. W. Cook was not just a keeper of a diary, but he knew how to express his feelings in his writings, which we can now share.

Give copies to your children and grandchildren that will become part of their historical record. $5.00 is a most reasonable price for such a priceless review of our heritage.

It is necessary for us to sell 1,200 copies immediately to clear up the loans we have had to acquire to finance the printing.

Clip the order form on page 6 and send us your order today.
